Roll Call:

Dr. Adena Robertson
LaVaughn Hart
Stacie Voss
Dr. Nicole Vigil – Appearing later in the meeting
Jackie Roach

A roll call was taken and the motion passed unanimously.

LaVaughn Hart requested for agenda approval of the agenda. Jackie Roach and Dr. Robertson moved to accept the agenda. Motion passed.

Public Comment

LaVaughn Hart opened the floor to public comments. None was given at this time.

Discussion of Scoring Sheets

LaVaughn Hart discussed the scoring rubric and some guidelines as far as minimum standards were discussed. It was discussed that the non-profit applicants need to be current on their 501c3 status, COROS status and should have appropriate paperwork currently filed with the state.

LaVaughn discussed that we have 66 applications totaling $2.7 million. We are handing out $1.7 million this year.

It was decided that if they are not up to date on their filings with the Secretary of State or current with IRS paperwork or COROS, we would not be able to provide awards to the organization.

Application Process

The sheltering committee began the process of reviewing the applications based on the scoring system previously established.
